To form shepherds (practical)
or to form theologians (theoretical)???

or

To form ministers theologians...
that can interpret the world... to show the directions for the sheep...

There are several models of theological education ...

Some schools do not even know the model that they are using

Some emphasize the work of the church...

The liturgy ...

Or still the disciplin.

Other just value the study...

Or even just the pulpit...

Which is the right model????

Education - two views / readings

Anthropological reading	Theological reading
from the man	from God
Human Cosmivision	Divine point of view
Human reality	Reality of creation under the Divine sovereignty
Subjective ethics coming from man's interior (Cartesianism)	Objective ethics coming from external sources to man (fundacionism)
Human suffering should be avoided at every cost	Human suffering may have a teleological meaning and it may be necessary
Justice is seen from human point of view	Justice is seen in the light of what God considers right, correct
Human character is essentially good and reliable	Character is essentially corrupted and deceiving
Human instincts and sensations should be liberated	Instincts and sensations should be kept under control

Why were we created?

B – C – D = we say that is the WHOLE of the Gospel - Salvationism

A – Z = actually, this is the WHOLE

B – C – D = it is just a part

God created us
for his glory ...
(Z) Gn 1,2

Z
We live for the glory of God
Is 43,7

1 Co 10,31

That diagram was inspired in DeVern Fromke, "DeVern Fromke, O supremo propósito, São Paulo: ELO, 1980.

The church and the kingdom of God

- The church is not an option or alternative
- The church is the agency of God
- The church is the community of the people of God
- It is in its atmosphere that each saved person develops his life to live for the glory of God
- The church is us, not the temple!!!!

After all for something the church does exist?
